Newswomen Honor New Envoy

The am eant Newspaperwomen's club gave a reception yesterday in honory of M and Mrs. Burks Summers.
Mr. Summers, who has been named by President Eisenhower to be Ambassador to Luxembourg, spent the last part dithe 6 to 8 mm. party with one eye on the guest,
the other on as portable television set the club had thoughtfully provided so it could see and hear the President address the Nation.
Mrs. Charles P. Cabell, coto chairmany of the party with Mrs. Hope, Ridings Miller, brought the felevision set.
The two co-chairmen stood in the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Summers and Mrs. Sarah McClendon, president of the club.
Pink peonies formed the centerpiece on the buffet table, which featured hot and cold dishes. The party was held at the Army and Navy

Club.
